KATHY SACHSE
State Queen Elect

CORONATION

State-queen Kathy's chapter coronation was lovely. The pink rose and baby's breath centerpieces were lightly dusted with glitter and sparkled in the candlelight.

Queen Kathy's daughter, Tiffanie Rule, was Kathy's flower girl and also served to keep Johnathan Rule, Kathy's grandson and crown bearer, headed in the right direction. Tiffanie looked lovely and Johnathan was handsome enough to break hearts!

After the queen's honor dance, each of Fresno's past queens were presented with a long stemmed carnation before taking the floor in the waltz. After a couple of times around the floor, the reigning queens from the chapters in attendance took the floor.

Don Beaman & Cherie Gossett of San Diego NSD danced a lovely standard exhibition that was enjoyed by all who attended. Don and Cherie worked hard on their dances and their efforts paid off.

The weekend of Fresno's coronation was the first time this writer has ever seen Irene Christie at a loss for words! Jim seemed to enjoy the laryngitis that frustrated Irene!

The competitions were judged by local professionals Steve Souza, Bunny Magison and Roberto Espana with the following results:

Novice Waltz

1. Kathy & Rick Constantino
Fresno

2. Tony & Nancy Palazzo
Fresno

3. Jim Fairchild & Shirley
McCloskey Fresno
Open Advanced Waltz

1. Vince & Nellie Uichanco
from Visalia

2. Tom & Nancy Hara—Fresno

3. Joe & Linda Jamili—Fresno

Cha-cha/rumba:

1. Vince & Nellie Uichanco

2. Joe & Linda Jamili

3. Dave Hailpern & Lynn
Sanders from Fresno

At brunch the next morning, Phyllis reminisced about the year that she had served as Fresno's queen. The ladies were presented with origami cranes tied to flowers as a "thank you" for the preceding year. The origami crane is a Japanese symbol of a wish for good fortune and Phyllis expressed a wish for good fortune to all the friends she has made while representing Fresno at all the coronations.

She also put herself in line for a foot-in-mouth award at the speech she made in Fresno. We will have to talk with the appropriate people so you can all hear about it at the proper time.

NOVEMBER PARTY

Our November social was hosted by Bob & Sue Dowell. The Dowells decorated the tables with autumn leaves and bottles of sparkling apple cider. The Thanksgiving theme was carried out with a beautifully
