"It is good to be Queen"

Rhymes for Good Times

*About this poem I did fret and stew
How do I tell you about my reign so true
All the excitement, all of the fun
This poem will tell all when it is done*

*For the entire year, I have felt like Queen Cinderella
With Bob by my side as my handsome fella
What an exciting year that I have had
All the Queens and Kings gave me reason to be glad*

*Within the Queen's dressing room we did giggle
While getting into our gowns caused us to wiggle
Each coronation was such a marvel
So from chapter to chapter we did travel*

*We enjoyed their hospitality and their warm greetings
I'll always remember those fine hors d'oeuvres we were eating
As the Queens parade onto the floor
Escorted by the King that they so adore*

*The beautiful attendees were all in a hush
As the newly crowned Queen enters with cheeks a blush
All is a glitter, all is a dither
As we watch her dance with no sign of jitter*

*The evenings are gay and full of fun
With dance aplenty for everyone
As midnight nears, off with the shoes
For poor aching feet have paid their dues*

*Off to bed before the stroke of midnight
So that Queen Cinderella will be the King's delight
Oh so early in the morn
Our tired bodies we did adorn*

*Off to the past Queen's brunch
To see once again the rowdy munch-in bunch
As we pack and hit the road again
Our plans for the next enchanting evening begin*

*So for one year you are a Queen
With such treasured memories you never dreamed
I thank you all for such a great year
In my heart you will always be dear*

*It's good to be: Queen Sue Dowell
