STATE QUEEN

It's Good to Be Queen

Goodbye to Champagne and Roses at the Opera, where my reign started as Fresno's Queen.

We were serenaded by Earl Myers singing the Lord's Prayer which blessed the deal.

The entire crowd lifted their champagne glasses and toasted to the new Fresno Queen.

2 1/2 weeks later, I retired from 37 years in education, now I'm ready to be a Queen.

Palomar's Coronation was "Far Away Places" for my good friend Queen Miriam Mozes.

Queen Miriam and George and I get the chance to reign together another year.

That means more trouble, fun, laughs and memories for me.

Fresno Convention begins, "Neptune's Kingdom" "Under the Sea"

the State Coronation Ball's theme was, "Bubbles and Roses"

State Queen Amy Ansaldi crowned me State Queen.

Franco Peraza, my teacher and I danced the Queens waltz to Andrea Bocelli's, "I believe" accompanied by Katherine Jenkins.

I will never forget the feeling of joy and exhilaration I had that night after being crowned S.Q.

For the second time the Crown Circle carried decorated champagne flutes filled with champagne toasting the new State Queen, Carla Rose. This was a weekend I will never forget in my lifetime.

Being State Queen it's an honor and a privilege to represent the entire state and all its chapters.

Nine to sixteen queens dressing in beautiful gowns wearing sparkly crowns

Handsome husbands and escorts build their friendships to never end.

Up and down the state a sisterhood of Queens was formed into lifelong friends.

Here's to the unforgettable memories, the joy and incredible fun with plenty of laughter.

As I step down as Fresno Queen, I shall always remember the honor and pride

I felt this year representing you as your Chapter Queen.

Dearest Queen Lynn Sanders, it's your turn to reign and shine with your Live, Love and Dance.

With your charm and grace, I know your year as Queen will be unforgettable.

Lynn, I look forward to reigning with you for a few more coronations

Before, I crown the next State Queen and my reign truly ends.

It's good to be Queen!
